

Scotland Highlands & Royal Deeside

12th June – 2nd July 2022

Relaxed touring, Wonderful scenery and a Royal Connection

The Highlands of Scotland offer some of the best scenery to be found in the British Isles and throughout this tour you will experience this. Enjoy the long days and light nights of being this far north in early Summer.

The major population centres of Scotland are Glasgow and Edinburgh, this tour starts and finishes north of these, directly in the Highlands. The tour focuses on the rural areas of the North and Deeside, or as it is often referred to as Royal Deeside.

Throughout the tour take the opportunity to make visits to Loch Lomond, Ben Nevis, Neptune's Staircase, Urquhart Castle, Loch Ness, Dunrobin Castle, Inverness city & its botanic gardens, Balmoral Castle and Braemar Highlands Games arena; all are on our route. Throughout the tour, each journey has been kept short, allowing you plenty of time for making stops on route and visits to attractions.

This tour offers wonderful travel in your own motorhome, through stunning Scottish scenery in sparsely populated locations, and all in a relaxed manner.

20 Nights

Day One – Sunday 12th June

We meet at a well-appointed campsite on Loch Lomond. Late afternoon the Tour Directors will host a welcome get together and for the evening we will all go out for a group dinner. A chance to meet fellow travelling companions and to learn a little more about the adventure ahead.

Day Two – Monday 13th June

A free day and an opportunity to visit your first 'Loch' of the tour. The waterside of Loch Lomond is a 10 minute-walk from our campsite where you can enjoy a taster of some of the great scenery to come throughout the tour.

Day Three – Tuesday 14th June

Move on today. Starting with a drive along the waterside of Loch Lomond we head towards the beautiful west coast town of Oban. On route make a stop at Inveraray for a visit of its castle and prison. 80 miles

Day Four – Wednesday 15th June

A free day. From our campsite there are views across the straights to Kerrara island and Oban centre is a 2.5 mile coastal cycle or walk away. Oban is a picturesque town with many shops, cafes and restaurants to enjoy.

Day Five - Thursday 16th June

Continue our journey north today as we travel to the base of Ben Nevis. On route stop off in Fort William. This evening we have a group dinner in the campsite's own well-appointed restaurant. 55 miles

Day Six - Friday 17th June

A free day. Maybe you will want to tackle Ben Nevis, a hike of around 7 hours! If not the scenery of the UK's highest mountain can be enjoyed directly from our campsite or whilst taking more pleasant flat walks alongside the river.

Day Seven – Saturday 18th June

Just a short drive today but it will take time. On route visit the Neptune Staircase (a series of 8 locks cut into the Caledonian Canal), make a stop at Spean Bridge, then as we run alongside Loch Ness keep an eye out for Nessie. Lastly make a stop at Urquhart castle before arriving to our campsite which is around 15 minutes walk from the shore of Loch Ness. 50 miles

Day Eight – Sunday 19th June

We continue north today for a stay on the coast at Dornoch. On route we recommend a visit to the 'Falls of Shin', one of the best places to view salmon jumping upstream as they return to their birth place for laying their own eggs. This evening we walk into Dornoch for a group meal. 75 miles

Day Nine and Ten – Monday 20th & Tuesday 21st June

Two free days and an opportunity to explore Dornoch (or to give the town its official title, Royal Dornoch) along with its world-famous golf course and beach. Also, just a short drive from the campsite is Dunrobin Castle which is worth a visit, including its impressive Falconry display.

Eleven – Wednesday 22nd June

A short journey today to the Highlands picturesque city of Inverness. The Caledonian Canal runs right next to the campsite, offering lovely walking and cycling opportunities. 50 miles

Day Twelve – Thursday 23rd June

We start today with a group breakfast in a restaurant located next to our campsite. The remainder of the day is free giving an opportunity to visit Inverness. The city is a pleasant 2km riverside walk from our campsite or alternatively, the hop on/hop off bus departs 500m from our campsite and provides full commentary to all the attractions.

Day Thirteen – Friday 24th June

Move on today to the Georgian town of Grantown-on-Spey, and a stay at a very well-appointed campsite. On route visit Culloden, location of the last battle to take place in Britain. The newly created visitor centre with 4 screen battle recreation is a must see. 35 miles

Day Fourteen and Fifteen – Saturday 25th & Sunday 26th June

Free days. Our campsite is very close to the town and you are now in serious whiskey country, Speyside being home to many distilleries. On one of the days we will have a group lunch in a local restaurant.

Day Sixteen – Monday 27th June

We swap Speyside for Deeside today as we arrive in Ballater, located on the river Dee and in the heart of the 'Royal' region. 40 miles

Day Seventeen – Tuesday 28th June

A free day. Take a walk around Ballater and see the many Royal Crescents presented to the local shops that supply the Royals at Balmoral. Also don't miss the old train station, the point of Queen Victoria's first arrival in the area, and the start of its long-standing Royal connections.

Day Eighteen – Wednesday 29th June

We continue to follow the river Dee today as we make our way south along the snow road to arrive at Pitlochry. Don't worry, it's the wrong time of year for snow and the ski resorts to be in full swing. On route make a visit to Balmoral Castle, the royal family's Scottish residence since the mid 1800's. 60 miles

Day Nineteen – Thursday 30th June

Pitlochry is a lovely place to explore along with its 'Salmon Ladder', both of which are walkable from our campsite. This afternoon we go out for 'afternoon tea'.

Day Twenty – Friday 1st July

A free day to explore Pitlochry further or just take it easy. This evening we walk into town for a 'Farewell dinner' and a chance to reflect on some of the wonderful scenery passed through over 20 days that has been Scotland's Highlands and Royal Deeside.

Day Twenty-one – Saturday 2nd July

Today our tour comes to an end. Edinburgh is just 70 miles south if you wish to extend your time in Scotland with a visit to its capital.
