

Greece - The Peloponnese

4th – 24th April 2026

Spring warmth, History and Coastal Scenery

Greece abounds with history and natural beauty and none more so than on its southern peninsula 'The Peloponnese'. This tour takes in the classical sights of Olympia, Monemvasia, Athens & Delphi to leave you enriched by its history and combines these with relaxation along the coast to create an enchanting early Spring get away. Being Spring look forward to some Mediterranean warmth and the sight of magnificent wildflowers as you travel.

In the tour there are also visits to the boutique island of Spetses and the Corinth Canal. All through the tour you will never be far from the sea or beach, and towns which retain a true Greek culture to give you the real Greek experience. Our tour of the Peloponnese lasts 21 nights or include 'Greece -The Northern Highlights' and extend your holiday to 34 nights in total, the choice is yours.

Val & Dave Ellis – Greece 2024

'Excellent Tour led by super Tour Directors Sue and Dave Stanway. The Tour covered many of the Country's Highlights, but also many of the lesser known areas that we would never have discovered if we had been travelling independently.'

Bryn & Hilary Richards – Greece 2024

'This was our first Tour and we have thoroughly enjoyed it. A good variety of visits, all very well organised. Sue & Dave did a great job as Tour Leaders.'

21 nights

Day One - Saturday 4th April

Welcome to Bologna in Italy where we meet at a good quality campsite. You should plan your arrival early afternoon to be ready for this evening's welcome drinks reception and tour briefing around the Tour Directors motorhome.

Day Two - Sunday 5th April

A drive today to catch the overnight ferry from Italy to Greece. On board an en-suite internal cabin is included. 140 miles

Day Three - Monday 6th April

Arriving in Greece this evening we stay local to the port. 5 miles

Day Four - Tuesday 7th April

Travel to a campsite near to Patras in southern Greece. In the evening we have a group dinner in the campsite's own family run restaurant for our first taste of Greek food and wine. 20 or 150 miles depending on arrival port in to Greece

Day Five - Wednesday 8th April

From our campsite we are taken to the coastal village of Dhiakofto where there should be time for a morning coffee before boarding a 'Rack and Pinion' train to take us up the Vouraikos gorge to Kalavryta. Climbing at gradients of 1 in 7 the 22km journey passes stunning views to arrive in the mountain town of Kalavryta where we have a group lunch arranged.

Day Six - Thursday 9th April

Move campsites today with a short drive to historic Olympia. 55 miles

Day Seven - Friday 10th April

We visit the site of ancient Olympia today, walkable from our campsite (or you may take a taxi at own expense). Home of the Olympic Games for over 1,000 years the ancient site remains home to the Olympic flame.

Day Eight - Saturday 11th April

We move to Gythio in the very south of Greece. 160 miles

Day Nine - Sunday 12th April

Today is the Greek Orthodox Easter Sunday and the biggest annual celebration in the Greek calendar, a day when families get together. After a leisurely start to the day, we make our way to a local beachside restaurant for our own group Easter lunch.

Day Ten - Monday 13th April

A free day. The colourful harbour town of Gythio can be reached by walking, cycling or a taxi ride. Alternatively, an opportunity to spend time on the campsite beach or to have a swim in the sea

Day Eleven - Tuesday 14th April

A group visit to 'Monemvasia – the Greek Gibraltar'. Here there will be free time to wander in this fascinating Byzantium town, followed by a group lunch in an old town restaurant.

Day Twelve - Wednesday 15th April

We drive to the beach resort of Tolo. You may choose the quick inland route or a stunning mountain and coastal drive. 110 or 140 miles

Day Thirteen - Thursday 16th April

Our destination today is the petite island of Spetses where there will be time to explore as you please. Renowned for its boutiques and picturesque streets it has become an extremely popular destination with upper class Athenians. Transport is by coach and boat.

Day Fourteen - Friday 17th April

A free day. With the resort of Tolo starting from the edge of our campsite and a great beach opposite, you will have plenty of opportunities for today. Group dinner in Tolo this evening.

Day Fifteen - Saturday 18th April

Today our drive takes us to Greece's capital and the ancient city of Athens, but not before stopping at the Corinth Canal with plenty of time for a walk out on its bridges for a look straight down. 120 miles

Day Sixteen - Sunday 19th April

An excursion in Athens centre, including a guided visit of the Acropolis.

Day Seventeen - Monday 20th April

A free day. Athens centre can be returned to using local transport from just outside the camping. Take time for visiting museums, parks and shopping within this ancient city.

Day Eighteen - Tuesday 21st April

Move on to Delphi today, home of the Oracle. En-route there is an opportunity to visit the mountain monastery of Osios Loukas. 100 miles

Day Nineteen - Wednesday 22nd April

A free day. Those wishing can independently visit the ancient site of Delphi and/or the mountain town of Arahova.

Day Twenty - Thursday 23rd April

This evening in the campsites own restaurant we all enjoy a 'Farewell Dinner' to those leaving us tomorrow.

Day Twenty-one - Friday 24th April

'Greece - The Peloponnese' tour ends this morning. Those returning home from this point will make their way to the port (80 or 200 miles depending on departure port) for this evenings overnight ferry back to Italy (again with en-suite internal cabin included). Arrival in Italy is the following day. Note the Tour Directors will not be returning at this point, they will continue on with 'Greece – The Northern Highlights'.

Those continuing with 'Greece -The Northern Highlights' move to our next Greek campsite, please see this tours itinerary for full details.
